Dear Enchantment of the Hamilton Homeowners Association,

On behalf of the entire Anchor House family, we would like to sincerely thank you for your generous donation of $230.00 to Angel's Wings. This much appreciated gift will help assist our agency fulfill its mission of providing services of emergency respite care to abused and neglected children from birth to 12 years of age. Your contribution will help us continue to provide food, shelter, clothing, therapeutic services, recreational activities and other essential assistance to the youth that we serve.

During these difficult economic times when it is understandable that some decline charitable requests, we are extremely appreciative of your commitment to the community. As a result, you made a difference of some very deserving children and youth. On behalf of all our clients and Anchor House, we would like to extend a most genuine and sincere thank you!

Sincerely,

Kim McNear
Executive Director
